WELCOME TO GOODWOOD RACECOURSE

The Directors and staff of Goodwood Racecourse warmly welcome you back for what promises to be a fantastic season of racing on the stunning Sussex Downs.

This booklet is dedicated to providing you with all the information you should need about our 2023 fixtures. Featured in this publication, is the Qatar Goodwood Festival, taking place from 1 – 5 August, which attracts the best racehorses in the world.

We have included the provisional race programme, useful information on racecourse facilities and stabling, maps and overviews of the various race meetings. If, however, you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact either myself or one of our team. Contact details can be found at the back of this booklet.

Once again there are a total of 14 scheduled race days outside of the Qatar Goodwood Festival Meeting for the 2023 season, this includes some changes to the pattern race programme during the May, June and August racing fixtures.

We are delighted that Sarah Vigneault is now our full time Owners and Trainers Manager, and she will be on hand in the run up to and during racedays to help with any queries you may have.

We very much look forward to welcoming you to Goodwood and hope that you will have a successful and enjoyable season.

SPRING RACING

OPENING WEEKEND, FRIDAY 5 – SATURDAY 6 MAY

Our feature races on the opening weekend are devoted to fillies and mares with two Listed contests restricted to them. The EBF Stallions Daisy Warwick Stakes run over one mile and four furlongs was won by Alpinista (rated 113) in 2021, a subsequent Qatar Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner she has set the standard in recent memory.

Meanwhile, the Conqueror Stakes on day two of the fixture has received a boost in prize-money to £60,000 in 2023. Run for three-year-olds, and upwards over a mile, Nyaleti won the 2018 renewal on route to claiming the German 1,000 Guineas, while last year's winner Mrs Fitzherbet gained Group 3 status after her success.

The valuable Class 2 Handicap (81-100) worth £50,000 and run over 5f has seen some good winners but none more so than in 2022 with Raasel setting the standard. Rocket Rodney was another notable winner during the fixture in a competitive Restricted Class 4 Novice. Trained by George Scott, he went on to finish second to Little Big Bear in the Listed Windsor Castle at Royal Ascot and Trillium in the Group 3 Markel Molecomb Stakes.

MAY FESTIVAL, FRIDAY 26 – SATURDAY 27 MAY

This year's May Festival, encompasses two days of back-to-back high-quality racing that includes three valuable Listed races: The Height of Fashion Stakes, The EBF Cocked Hat Stakes and the Festival Stakes. With total prize money over the two days of over £485,000.

Friday hosts the important EBF Cocked Hat Stakes run over one mile and three furlongs, worth £60,000 and won in 2021 by Lone Eagle who went on to finish an agonising second to Hurricane Lane in the Irish Derby. Lionel proved a worthy winner in 2022. The Height of Fashion Stakes is the second Listed race on the day run over one mile and two furlongs for £60,000. Won by the enormously talented Sea Silk Road who went on to be runner-up in the Group 2 Ribblesdale Stakes at Royal Ascot. On the same card the Class 4 Novice Stakes provided a good stepping-stone for Royal Scotsman who came back and won the Group 2 Richmond Stakes at the Qatar Goodwood Festival.

Saturday sees the older horses come to the fore in the Listed Festival Stakes. Worth £60,000 and won in 2022 by Majestic Dawn. Winners of the 1 mile and 2-furlong Festival Stakes down the years have included Sixties Icon, Decorated Knight and Elarqam.

QATAR GOODWOOD FESTIVAL

TUESDAY 1 – SATURDAY 5 AUGUST

Affectionately known as ‘Glorious Goodwood’, the Qatar Goodwood Festival will be run this year between 1 - 5 August. The eyes of the racing world will be firmly set on the Sussex Downs for our annual showpiece of high-quality racing and glamour in this most idyllic of settings. We would like to thank our sponsors, both new and established, for their support in making this a week to remember for all concerned, with particular thanks going to our title partner, the Qatar Racing and Equestrian Club. We are delighted that the first three days will again be part of the Hong Kong Jockey Club’s World Pool with UK betting via the Tote.

The Group 1 Al Shaqab Goodwood Cup takes centre stage on day one. The two-mile contest provided a race for the ages in 2022, with a bumper renewal going the way of Kyprios for trainer Aiden O’Brien who touched off the four-time winner Stradivarius. On the same card, a competitive £60,000 Class 2 Maiden went the way of Mischief Magic who culminated his season with the Breeders’ Cup Juvenile Turf at Keenland.

Baaeed furthered his reputation as the best racehorse in the world on turf with a scintillating display in £1 million Qatar Sussex Stakes. The historic race has featured many ‘duels on the downs’ over the years. We look forward to seeing who will come to the fore this year.

Thursday is traditionally Ladies' Day and to complement this the Qatar Nassau Stakes (Group 1) will be the feature race on the card. Dierdre made history in 2019 for trainer Mitsuru Hashida and Japan, being the first horse from Japan to win at Goodwood. Hollie Doyle and the Imad Alsagar owned Nashwa, claimed last year's renewal before the turn of the sprinters on Friday.

Then £300,000 King George Qatar Stakes (Group 2) over five furlongs and it was no surprise to see trainer Charlie Hills unearth another sprinting superstar following the retirement of the imperious Battaash, this time in the form of Khaadem who put up a career-best performance to win. Later in the card Rebel's Romance won the £100,000 Group 3 Glorious Stakes, before going on to notch up three Group 1s ending the season as Breeders' Cup Turf hero in November.

On Saturday, Commanche Falls became the first horse in 56 years to win back-to-back Stewards' Cups. Sea La Rosa claimed the £300,000 Lillie Langtry Stakes before winning a Group 1 at Longchamp, and The Foxes provided a notable Class 2 maiden winner to follow ahead of this year's Classic season.

SEASON FINALE

SUNDAY 15 OCTOBER

The final meeting of the season features several handicaps, the best of which being over a distance of one mile and four furlongs. The card also features three 2 year old races which provide the perfect opportunity to see horses that may prosper in big races in the following seasons. The opening race of the day will again be a race over two miles but for jump jockeys. Last year it provided Bryony Frost with a comeback victory after a long spell on the side lines. The National Hunt theme continued with Tritonic showing his class to land the Class 2 Handicap worth £30,000 for trainer Alan King and jockey Hollie Doyle.

COURSE CHARACTERISTICS

Goodwood's pronounced gradients and sharp bends favour the active, handy type of horse, the fluent mover rather than the big, long-striding runner, and this applies especially in short races and when the going is fast.

POSITION OF STARTING STALLS

Straight Course: on stands side rail
Round Course: on inside rail
(except 1m 3f & 1m 4f: on outside rail)

The Raceweek Regency Ball

Goodwood House, Thursday 3 August 2023

CHAMPAGNE 7.30PM • DINNER 8.30PM • DANCING

Our Raceweek Regency Ball gives us the ideal opportunity to honour the commitment of the inspirational and brilliant women who will be taking part in the Charity Ladies' Race, the Markel Magnolia Cup – all of the riders will be joining us for the evening.

Featuring vintage entertainment and a famous match race between two horses at night through the park, which is entirely lit with flares, just as it was in the 18th century; it really is a truly magical and uplifting sight. The whole evening is quite a spectacle, where the great Regency House comes alive like an early 19th Century film set.
